

Application

June 17 – 20, 2009

Fellowships cover lodging, most meals, instruction and curriculum materials, plus travel expenses to a maximum of $300. Journalist Law School (JLS) participation is limited to 35 professional journalism fellows who are competitively selected. Applicants must be currently employed as professional journalists and have a minimum of three years of journalism experience with primary responsibilities focusing on the United States. Although the program is only 4 days long, the classes are residential and fellows are expected to attend all class sessions as well as other related and evening activities, stay in the host hotel and participate in organized meals with other fellows.

Instructions:

- Fill out the following form. Type or print clearly. If additional space is needed, please use a separate sheet of paper.
- Application must be received by March 23, 2009. Fellows will be announced, via email, on or about April 6, 2009.
- E-mail or faxed applications will be accepted but original application with signatures must be received within five days of the deadline.

Information supplied by the applicant will be used only to evaluate the application and will be kept confidential.*

The following material should be included in your application package:

1. Completed application forms
2. Resume
3. Sample of your work (written article or on air report) - recommended but not required

Please e-mail, fax or mail all application materials to:
