

MASTER OF LEGAL STUDIES

Criminal Justice

LOYOLA
LAW SCHOOL | LOS ANGELES

Loyola's Master of Science in Legal Studies (MLS) with a specialization in Criminal Justice is designed to provide working professionals in the field with legal skills and training that will help them expand their knowledge and skill sets to be more effective in a legally complex industry.

The MLS program can be completed in one year, full-time or over the course of two years, part-time. Loyola offers evening courses as well as traditional day courses to provide greater flexibility for your schedule and lifestyle.

Loyola's Criminal Justice students benefit from a wealth of resources, including important symposia like the annual Fidler Institute on Criminal Justice, as well as the Alarcón Advocacy Center, which includes the Law School's Project for the Innocent and the Capital Habeas Litigation Clinic. Professors include judges, former assistant U.S. Attorneys, the Federal Public Defender for the Central District of California and more.

The MLS Criminal Justice Specialization offers a breadth and depth of courses to meet the needs of professionals across the industry.

Courses include:

- Fact Investigation
- Cybercrime
- Law and the Use of Force
- Police Practices Seminar
- Race, Class, and Criminal Justice
- Juvenile Delinquency Law and Procedure

Visit lls.edu/mls for full course listing.

Industry Connections

LOYOLA'S ALUMNI NETWORK

Loyola has one of the largest alumni networks in the world, with a vast number of those alums practicing in the criminal justice system. With the most JD alumni of any law school hired by the Los Angeles District Attorney's Office and the most alumni on the Southern California Super Lawyers "Top 100" list, you will be in good company as part of Loyola's alumni network.

Ranked 6th in
TRIAL ADVOCACY

— U.S. News & World Report

Apply Now
lls.edu/mls

To learn more, contact the Office of Admissions:
213-736-1074 or
admissions@lls.edu