Loyola's Alumni Grand Reunion Returns to Campus to Honor Distinguished Graduates, Faculty

Los Angeles — Over 400 members of Loyola's alumni community will attend the 2007 Alumni Grand Reunion to be held Thursday, Oct. 25 from 5:30-8:30 pm. The event – whose theme is “Our Campus. Our Faculty. Our Alma Mater.” – marks the first time the reunion has been held on Loyola's Frank Gehry-designed campus in downtown LA since 2000.

“The Grand Reunion unites hundreds of alumni from a wide range of class years and diverse areas of practice and professions on the Law School's campus, which is the perfect venue for this event,” said Carmen Ramirez, director of alumni relations. “Many alums have not been back on campus since graduation, so it's nice to provide them with an opportunity to visit.”

The reunion will open with an awards ceremony, which will bestow the Distinguished Alumni Award on two graduates: John A. Girardi '72, partner, Girardi | Keese; and Harumi Hata '85, partner, Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal LLP. The Loyola faculty, many of whom are also alumni, will later be honored with the Board of Governors Recognition Award. The ensuing reception will feature a jazz band and refreshments.
