

For Immediate Release
Feb. 27, 2008

Loyola Law School Democrats to Host California Secretary of State Debra Bowen

Los Angeles – California Secretary of State Debra Bowen will discuss voting issues and other election-year topics as part of a Loyola Law School Democrats event from 12-1 pm on Thursday, Feb. 28 on Loyola's downtown LA campus. Dean Victor Gold will give opening remarks.

Bowen will talk about her role in the recent California presidential primary election and the Nov. 4 general election. Bowen, a Democrat, was first elected to the state legislature in 1992 and has been secretary of state since 2007. She is the highest ranking female official in California and has an extensive background in environmental, land use, tax and business law. Learn more about her at www.debrabowen.com.

For media access, please contact Brian Costello at 213.736.1444 or brian.costello@lls.edu.

About Loyola Law School Los Angeles

Located in downtown Los Angeles—a legal, financial and media capital—Loyola Law School is home to prominent faculty, dedicated students and cutting-edge programs. Committed to legal ethics and the public interest, Loyola Law School has produced top attorneys for nearly a century. For expert commentary, please contact Brian Costello, deputy director of communications, at 213.736.1444 or brian.costello@lls.edu. For more information on Loyola Law, please visit www.lls.edu.

###