

MEDIA ADVISORY:

Community Kindergarteners to Visit Loyola Law School for Halloween Fun

Los Angeles, CA – October 27, 2005. On Halloween, Loyola Law School Los Angeles will welcome kindergarteners from the Olympic Primary Center for trick-or-treating and arts & crafts with Loyola Law School students, staff and faculty.

What: Trick-or-Treating and Arts & Crafts at Loyola Law School

Who: Kindergarten classes from the Olympic Primary Center and Loyola Law School students, staff and faculty

When: Monday, October 31, 2005, 11:45 am-1:45 pm

Where: The Loyola Law School campus, 919 Albany Street, Los Angeles, CA. For directions, visit www.lls.edu/about/campus/directions.html.

Background:

Loyola Law School Los Angeles will provide a safe, welcoming environment for kindergarteners to celebrate Halloween. Organized by Loyola's Student Bar Association, Loyola students, faculty and staff will greet kindergarteners on the campus Esplanade for trick-or-treating, followed by helping the kids make Halloween masks. Paper plates, glitter, glue, feathers, markers and crayons will be available to all!

Members of the media are encouraged to attend. To arrange access to campus, please contact Kira Poplowski, director of communications, at (213) 736-1445 or Kira.Poplowski@lls.edu.