

Loyola Law School's Student Body Ranked in Top Ten Nationwide

November 15, 2005, Los Angeles. Leiter's Law School Rankings, a comprehensive study of law schools, ranks Loyola Law School's student body in the top ten of student bodies at large law schools (those with 350 or more students) nationwide.

Also included on the list are Columbia University School of Law, Georgetown Law Center, George Washington University School of Law, Harvard Law School, Hastings, New York University School of Law and the Universities of Michigan, Texas and Virginia Schools of Law.

The quality of student bodies was measured by LSAT scores and undergraduate GPAs. Leiter's Law School Rankings is produced by Brian Leiter, the Joseph D. Jamail Centennial Chair in Law at the University of Texas School of Law.
