

For Immediate Release
April 16, 2008

Loyola Law School to Honor Orange County Alumni: Judge Gail A. Andler & James P. Lower

Los Angeles – Loyola Law School's Orange County Alumni Reception will honor the Hon. Gail A. Andler '82, Superior Court of California, County of Orange, and James P. Lower '68, partner, Hanna and Morton, LLP. Dean Victor Gold will also attend the event, which will run Thursday, April 17 from 6-8 pm at the Pacific Club, 4110 MacArthur Blvd., Newport Beach.

Andler is a former deputy district attorney and special assistant US attorney, during which time she handled thousands of criminal, civil and juvenile cases. She is also the author of strong anti-gang legislation. She was known for prosecuting unethical attorneys and representing small business owners in transactional and litigation matters.

Lower is an expert in charitable organizations law. He has particular experience in advising private clubs and other associations regarding privacy and other applicable law. He is a past president and general counsel of The California Club.

Tickets for the event are $55 a person. Proceeds will benefit the Orange County Alumni Scholarship Fund. For more information or to register, please see alumni.lls.edu/events/080417-OrangeCountyReception.

About Loyola Law School Los Angeles

Located in downtown Los Angeles—a legal, financial and media capital—Loyola Law School is Home to prominent faculty, dedicated students and cutting-edge programs. Committed to legal ethics and the public interest, it has produced top attorneys for nearly a century. Please visit www.lls.edu for more information or contact Brian Costello, deputy director of communications, at 213.736.1444 or brian.costello@lls.edu.

###