Drugs, Drug Testing and Sports A One-Day Symposium on Drugs & Drug Testing in Professional, Amateur & International Sports at Loyola Law School

Featuring Sports Greats Carl Lewis and Diana Nyad

LOS ANGELES (October 20, 2004) –On Friday, October 22nd, 2004, Loyola Law School and the new Loyola Sports Law Institute will be hosting our inaugural symposium. This one day event will be devoted to drugs and drug testing issues in professional, amateur and international sports. Admission is free to all and a complimentary Mexican fiesta lunch will be provided by Camacho's.

The symposium will run from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The morning session will cover drug testing in amateur and international athletics. We have received speaking commitments from athletic greats Carl Lewis and Diana Nyad. This panel will also include Dr. Gary Wadler (NYU School of Medicine), who is a member of WADA and a drug policy advisor to the NBA and the White House Office of National Drug Control Policy. Legal perspectives will be provided by Scott Bearby (NCAA Associate General Counsel), Maidie Oliveau (CAS arbitrator), Michael Lenard (CAS Overseer) and Howard Jacobs (Sports Attorney at Forgie, Jacobs & Leonard).

The afternoon session will focus on drug policy issues in the professional league sports setting. Scheduled speakers include Dennis Curran (Senior VP and General Counsel, NFL Management Council), Richard Moss (former General Counsel, MLB Players Association) and Kevin Gilmore (Vice President of Hockey Operations and Assistant General Manager, L.A. Kings).

For questions about the symposium, please contact Professor Daniel E. Lazaoff at 213.736.1158 or Daniel.Lazaroff@lls.edu. To arrange media access, please contact Ms. Kira Poplowski at 213.736.1445 or Kira.Poplowski@lls.edu.
