Loyola Law School Honors Alumni Who Have Served on the Bench

Los Angeles, April 16, 2007 – Loyola Law School Los Angeles will honor the 250-plus members of its alumni who have served on the bench in the Dean’s Forum event “A Salute to the Judiciary” on Friday, April 19 at The California Club, 538 S. Flower St., LA. A 6:30 pm reception and 7 pm dinner will precede the program, which begins at 7:45 pm and will feature speaker Bruce Broillet of Greene, Broillet & Wheeler LLP.

The evening underscores Loyola’s achievement as one of the most prolific educators of judges on both the state and federal levels. “More than 250 Loyola Law School alumni have sat as judges in state and federal courts,” said Dean David Burcham. “We are extremely grateful to these men and women who serve us all in our justice system, and we honor their work and dedication with pride.”

Members of the media are invited to attend the program. Please contact Brian Costello, deputy director of communications, at 213-736-1444 or brian.costello@lls.edu for further information.
