What did you like most about the event?

What did you like least about the event?

Please share an example of how you will apply what you learned at the event with your current work.

We would love to post a quote from you on our website and/or written materials. If you believe that Restorative Justice is good option for survivors of human trafficking, and only if you are comfortable, please describe in a few words why you think that survivors should have this as an alternative response to justice. You can also provide an example of the knowledge or inspiration that you have gained as a result of attending the conference.
