SJI POLICY PRIORITIES

SUPPORT A NEW PATH TO JUSTICE

A proposed five-year Restorative Justice Pilot Program for people impacted by human trafficking in California.

Learn More

Survivor Choice • Healing • Accoutability

WHY THIS MATTERS

SURVIVORS DESERVE A VOICE IN JUSTICE

The criminal legal system often focuses on prosecution and incarceration. These responses may not address survivors' needs for safety, healing, and long-term support.

Justice should include survivor choice, healing, and real accountability.

- Centered on Survivors

OUR APPROACH

A DIFFERENT APPROACH TO ACCOUNTABILITY

The proposed pilot would provide voluntary restorative justice options, long-term survivor services, and programs that promote accountability and rehabilitation.

- Survivor Choice
- Healing & Support
- Accountability
- Preventing Harm

THE PROPOSED INVESTMENT

INVESTING IN SURVIVOR SUPPORT

Housing & Financial Support
Resources to support safety and stability.

Mental Health Services
Trauma-informed care and healing.

Legal Assistance
Support addressing legal barriers.

Accountability & Rehabilitation
Programs for people who caused harm.

TAKE ACTION

A $25 MILLION INVESTMENT
RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

SJI is seeking $25 million in California state funding for a five-year pilot program serving people impacted by human trafficking.

Sign On to Support

Survivor Choice • Healing • Accoutability

www.lls.edu/sunitajain/trafficking-restorative justice