LOYOLA

LAW SCHOOL | LOS ANGELES

Dear Loyola Law School Community:

Loyola Law School's tradition of excellence is made possible with the participation of all alumni, students, faculty, staff and friends who make up the Loyola community. You are a part of this community that has educated and graduated leaders in the legal and business professions, non-profit and public sectors, and society. You are Loyola and we are grateful for your involvement.

In addition to the numerous work and volunteer hours our community has given to Loyola, thousands of you have invested in our school by also making a financial contribution. The impact of your gift is felt around campus and in the communities that we serve.

Your support has enabled us to attract and retain talented faculty, provide scholarships to deserving students, continue to offer innovative and relevant programs that give our students the skills and experiences necessary for them to achieve success. Additionally, Loyola's commitment to public service and social justice, means that the impact of your support stretches beyond Loyola; it reaches far into our communities where help and counsel is being given to those with limited access and means, making a difference in our community.

Every gift counts. Collectively, as a community, last year we raised more than $4.37 million. The 2013-2014 Honor Roll of Donors recognizes our donors who have helped to strengthen Loyola.

On behalf of all the lives that Loyola touches, please accept my heartfelt thanks for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Victor J. Gold". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Victor J. Gold

Fritz B. Burns Dean, Loyola Law School

Senior Vice President, Loyola Marymount University

“ I give what I can as a thank you to my professors who gave me their all.”

- Jay Strozdas '12

Dear Supporters,

It is with great appreciation that we acknowledge the thousands of donors who made a financial commitment to Loyola Law School during the 2013-2014 fiscal year (June 1, 2013 to May 31, 2014). A total of 2,774 donors collectively contributed $3.18 million and an additional $1.35 million in pledge commitments.

In continuing our efforts to create a stronger culture of philanthropy at Loyola Law School, we are pleased to report that this past year, the Law School launched the new Juris Society. The Juris Society recognizes donors who give $2,500 or more annually to the Juris Fund which supports the school's greatest needs. We are grateful to the founding members of the Juris Society whose names are listed in the new Juris Society section of this Honor Roll of Donors.

While the Juris Society is an important fundraising initiative for Loyola, equally important is the annual alumni giving rate. The percentage of alumni who make a gift is a significant fundraising metric calculated annually and can be an indicator of alumni satisfaction and engagement. The class with the highest alumni participation rate was the Class of 2014. Please join us in thanking and congratulating our most recent graduates who achieved a record-breaking 57% participation rate.

Every gift to Loyola helps. Every gift contributes to the current and future Loyola experience and the value of a Loyola degree.

On behalf of the Loyola community, thank you to all of our donors.

With gratitude,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Thanh Hoang". The signature is written in a dark ink on a white background.

Thanh Hoang
Assistant Dean of Advancement

Juris Society

Alumni and friends who contribute $2,500 or more annually to the Juris Fund are recognized as members of the Juris Society. Recent graduates (5 years or less) may become Juris Society members with a gift of $1,000 or more, and graduating students can become members for a cumulative gift of $1,000 over a five year period. These leadership donors play an invaluable role in providing support to the Law School's most urgent needs with their unrestricted gifts. Members of the Juris Society are invited to unique events throughout the year and to a special reception with the Dean.

What's Your Loyola Legacy?

REMEMBERING LOYOLA in your estate plans carries the Law School's traditions forward and helps provide for the next generation of students. Please contact Thanh Hoang, assistant dean of advancement, at (213) 736-1025 or Thanh.Hoang@lls.edu to discuss your Loyola legacy.

Scholarships & Awards

The gift of scholarship ensures that future students, who may not otherwise be able to attend Loyola, benefit from Loyola's nationally recognized legal education. Donors can choose to give to existing scholarship funds or can choose to create a named endowed scholarship.

Endowing a named scholarship increases our financial security while helping us address a great student need with a sustainable, long-term funding solution. Your gift builds power as it is pooled with all other current University endowment assets—currently valued at approximately $380 million. The principle of your gift is never spent; rather, it remains invested to build strength with market growth. Interest earned on your investment funds the scholarship and the distribution of earnings is generally 5% annually.

One of our favorite events at Loyola Law School is the scholarship lunch that brings donors and recipients together. This is one way we can say thank you for your generosity and give you a first-hand account of the enormous impact your gift has on a student's ability to achieve his or her goal.

We thank the following donors for their support of scholarships.

Endowed Chairs

Appointments to endowed chairs are one of the highest academic honors that a law school can bestow upon members of its faculty. Those whose generosity leads to the creation of an endowed chair become partners in this endeavor, not just with the current holder of the chair, but also with all future chair holders. The naming of a chair after a distinguished person forever connects that person's name with the work supported by that chair.

Matching Gifts

Many companies and employers match charitable contributions of an employee or spouse allowing the donor to increase his or her gift. Contact your Human Resources department to inquire about matching gift policies or obtain a matching gift form. The matching gift form should be completed by your employer and submitted with your gift.

Estate / Planned Gifts

Planned gifts include bequests, real estate gifts, life insurance, trusts, tangible personal property, closely held stock, remainder in a home, etc. Planned gifts are an extraordinary way for alums and friends to support Loyola Law School. Each gift qualifies for a charitable tax deduction but also has special rules for placing value on the gifts. If you would like assistance in making arrangements for planned gifts, please contact Thanh Hoang at the address below.

Online or By Telephone

Call us at 213.736.8396 or visit us online at alumni.lls.edu/giving to make a gift with your credit card.

Gifts to Loyola Law School are tax deductible to the extent allowed by the law. All donors will receive a letter of appreciation that includes a receipt and recognition in the annual Honor Roll of Donors.
