MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Loyola Alumni and Friends,

It is my greatest honor to thank you and the thousands of fellow Loyola community members that support the Law School with your philanthropy. The support of the entire law school family enables us to innovate in our programs, support our students, serve our community, and build on Loyola Law School's tradition of excellence.

This past spring, LA's Mayor, Eric Garcetti, joined us on campus for the grand opening of Loyola's Social Justice Law Clinic. Mayor Garcetti understands the power of the Loyola model — not only do we help fill the access to justice gap facing some of the most vulnerable members of our community, we do so while training the next generation of advocates and leaders in the legal profession. In 2017, our clinical students helped more than 2,500 clients through their coursework at Loyola Law School.

We increased the amount of scholarship support by $1,400,000 during the 2017-2018 academic year. Furthermore, we have increased the career counselor to student ratio, which has helped our recent graduates navigate the job market. The percentage of Loyola graduates in full time, long-term positions that require bar admissions or where a J.D. is advantageous reached 80% with the class of 2017, the best employment rate in recent memory. Loyola tied sixth in the nation and ranked first on the west coast with the highest number of 2017 graduates employed in business/industry.

We had a great year. These developments would not have been possible without alumni and friends who made a gift to the Law School during the 2018 fiscal year.

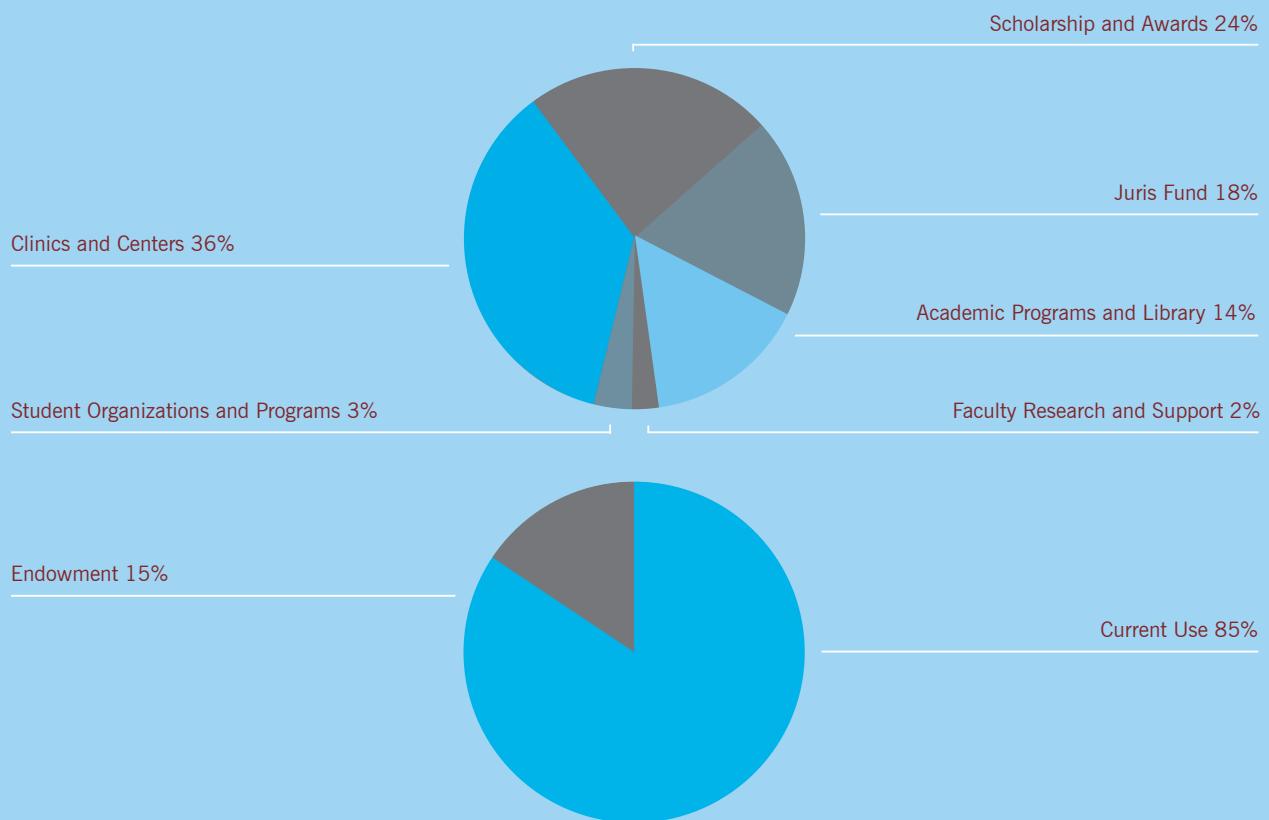

Sincerely,

Michael Waterstone

Fritz B. Burns Dean, Loyola Law School
Senior Vice President, Loyola Marymount University

ADVANCEMENT REPORT

Dear Alumni and Friends,

I am pleased to report that the investment in Loyola Law School by alumni and friends totaled over $6.1 million in gifts and pledges this past fiscal year (FY18). Gifts from nearly 3,000 alumni, parents and family, faculty, staff and friends directly supported Loyola's students and programs.

Alumni and friends demonstrated faith in Dean Michael Waterstone's vision for Loyola by designating their gifts to Loyola's Juris Fund, which gives the Dean the ability to invest in programs that bolster the student experience through clinical offerings and experiential learning, concentrations, and scholarships. Donors gave 26% more than the previous year to the Juris Fund, which reflects the fifth consecutive year of Juris Fund growth. Juris Society membership, donors who give $2,500 or more to the Juris Fund annually, surpassed the 100 member mark, further illustrating the growing support for Dean Waterstone's vision for Loyola.

Alumni and friends also gave to the Loyola Social Justice Clinic, which includes The Project for the Innocent, The Center for Juvenile Law and Policy's three clinics, The Immigrant Justice Clinic, Center for Conflict Resolution and The International Human Rights Clinic. Members of the community recognize the power of Loyola's clinical model and made a direct investment in the way we train attorneys to help others.

Our Center for Juvenile Law and Policy received a $1,000,000 grant from the Everychild Foundation and Mayor Eric Garcetti partnered with Loyola to create the Collateral Consequences of Conviction Justice Project. Similarly, over 300 alumni and friends supported Loyola's Project for the Innocent and their Campaign for Justice, which raised over a quarter of a million dollars to help the wrongfully convicted find justice. Gifts of all sizes make a difference in the lives of our students and the clients they serve.

We are deeply grateful for every gift and to each of our donors for their loyal support of Loyola Law School.

With gratitude,

JURIS SOCIETY

Alumni and friends who contribute $2,500 or more annually to the Juris Fund—the dean’s discretionary fund—are recognized as members of the Juris Society.

Current students, graduates of the past decade, and current and former members of the bench can become Juris Society members with a gift of $1,000 or more.

These leadership donors play an invaluable role in providing support to the Law School’s most urgent needs with their unrestricted gifts. Members of the Juris Society are invited to unique events throughout the year and to a special reception with the Dean.

BUCHALTER PUBLIC SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

“This scholarship has allowed me to extend my learning outside of the classroom to advocate on behalf of tenants in East Los Angeles and Boyle Heights; migrants and their families facing deportation; victims of police brutality; and individuals wrongfully convicted.”

I am truly honored to have been selected as the recipient of the Buchalter Public Service Scholarship this year. Because of your generosity, I can dedicate my time at Loyola to serving marginalized communities and share my passion for public interest work with the Loyola community. This scholarship has allowed me to extend my learning outside of the classroom to advocate on behalf of tenants in East Los Angeles and Boyle Heights; migrants and their families facing deportation; victims of police brutality; and individuals wrongfully convicted. As a Co-Vice Chair of the Public Interest Law Foundation and Vice President of the Asian-Pacific American Law Student Association, I connect my peers to public interest organizations for pro bono work and fundraise for summer public interest stipends for students. Your thoughtful and generous gift not only supports me but also the greater Loyola community and the clients we serve.

Thank you so much for your generosity and continued support of public interest students at Loyola. I am sincerely grateful.

Sincerely,

Alda Merino-Caan Class of 2019

BIO | Alda graduated from Pitzer College, where she studied International and Intercultural Studies. At Pitzer, she worked with formerly incarcerated women advocating for their cultural and political rights. After graduating, she worked as a community organizer throughout Los Angeles County.

At Loyola, Alda advocates — domestically and internationally — for housing rights, civil rights, immigrant rights, and human rights. With Loyola’s International Human Rights Clinic, she submitted reports to the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

Scholarships ensure that students who may not otherwise be able to attend Loyola benefit from Loyola's nationally recognized legal education.

Donors can choose to give to existing scholarship funds or can create a named scholarship. Establishing a named scholarship increases Loyola's financial security while helping the Law School address a great student need.

Gifts to endowed scholarships build power as they are pooled with all other University endowment assets—currently valued over $450 million. The principle is never spent; rather, it remains invested to build strength with market growth. Interest earned on the investment funds the scholarship and the distribution of earnings is generally 5% annually.

Thank you to the following donors for their support of scholarships:

LAW REVIEW SCHOLARSHIP

“I take great pride in being a member of the Loyola community, and your generosity allows me to contribute to the community to the full extent of my ability.”

Thank you for your generous support of the Law Review Scholarship. I take great pride in being a member of the Loyola community, and your generosity allows me to contribute to the community to the full extent of my ability. This year, I am the Editor-in-Chief of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review — a position that comes with the great honor and responsibility of ensuring that our flagship journal reflects well upon the Law School. I am also a member of the Ninth Circuit Appellate Advocacy Clinic, through which I have the opportunity to represent an indigent client on appeal. This scholarship allows me to spend my time engaged in such extracurricular activities, and to utilize the skills I have learned at Loyola to give back.

With deep gratitude,

BIO | Sam Donohue grew up in Portland, Oregon and attended Seattle University. In his senior year, he was named swim team captain. He graduated summa cum laude, with the highest G.P.A. in both of his majors—political science and Spanish.

Sam is a third-year law student at Loyola Law School and the editor-in-chief of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review.

He served as an extern to the Honorable Christina A. Snyder of the United States District Court for the Central District of California, and then to the Honorable Harry Pregerson of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Upon graduation, Sam will be returning to O’Melveny & Myers LLP, where he worked as a summer associate during his 2L summer. He aspires to work as a judicial clerk to a federal judge.

LOYOLA SCHOLARSHIP

“I intend to work as hard as I can, to actively contribute towards improving my community, and to never stop striving to learn and improve.”

Thank you. Because of your support, I have been able to pursue my dream of becoming an attorney and advocate. I cannot express how grateful I am to have received the Loyola Scholarship, and I know that I have a responsibility to not take this opportunity lightly. I intend to work as hard as I can, to actively contribute towards improving my community, and to never stop striving to learn and improve.

I am currently on the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review, the Scott Moot Court Honors Board, the National Moot Court Competition Team, and the South Asian Law Students Association. It has been an honor to have been awarded the Loyola Scholarship to further my pursuits in school. I look forward to giving back in the future!

Thank you, again.

Mariam Sarwar Class of 2018

While in school, she worked at the Kalamazoo College Women's Resource Center; completed an externship with AmeriCorps Volunteers in Service to America; and worked at Interact Kalamazoo, a mental health advocacy nonprofit. At Loyola Law School, Mariam serves as a research assistant for Professor Lauren Willis, vice president of the South Asian Law Students Association, a senior production editor on the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review, a member of the Scott Moot Court Honors Board, and an oralist on the National Moot Court Competition Team. She hopes to use her law degree to create positive change and continue advocating for those in need.

ENDOWED CHAIRS

Appointments to endowed chairs are one of the highest academic honors that a law school can bestow upon members of its faculty.

Those whose generosity leads to the creation of an endowed chair become partners in this endeavor, not just with the current holder of the chair, but also with all future chair holders. The naming of a chair after a distinguished person forever connects that person's name with the work supported by that chair.

“I consider myself lucky to work with students who are committed to using their skills to provide access to justice to others. It is how our social justice mission is lived out through our faculty, students, and staff in some way, every day that makes Loyola such a special place.”

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Loyola Alumni and Friends,

It is my greatest honor to thank you and the thousands of fellow Loyola community members that support the Law School with your philanthropy. The support of the entire law school family enables us to innovate in our programs, support our students, serve our community, and build on Loyola Law School's tradition of excellence.

This past spring, LA's Mayor, Eric Garcetti, joined us on campus for the grand opening of Loyola's Social Justice Law Clinic. Mayor Garcetti understands the power of the Loyola model — not only do we help fill the access to justice gap facing some of the most vulnerable members of our community, we do so while training the next generation of advocates and leaders in the legal profession. In 2017, our clinical students helped more than 2,500 clients through their coursework at Loyola Law School.

We increased the amount of scholarship support by $1,400,000 during the 2017-2018 academic year. Furthermore, we have increased the career counselor to student ratio, which has helped our recent graduates navigate the job market. The percentage of Loyola graduates in full time, long-term positions that require bar admissions or where a J.D. is advantageous reached 80% with the class of 2017, the best employment rate in recent memory. Loyola tied sixth in the nation and ranked first on the west coast with the highest number of 2017 graduates employed in business/industry.

We had a great year. These developments would not have been possible without alumni and friends who made a gift to the Law School during the 2018 fiscal year.

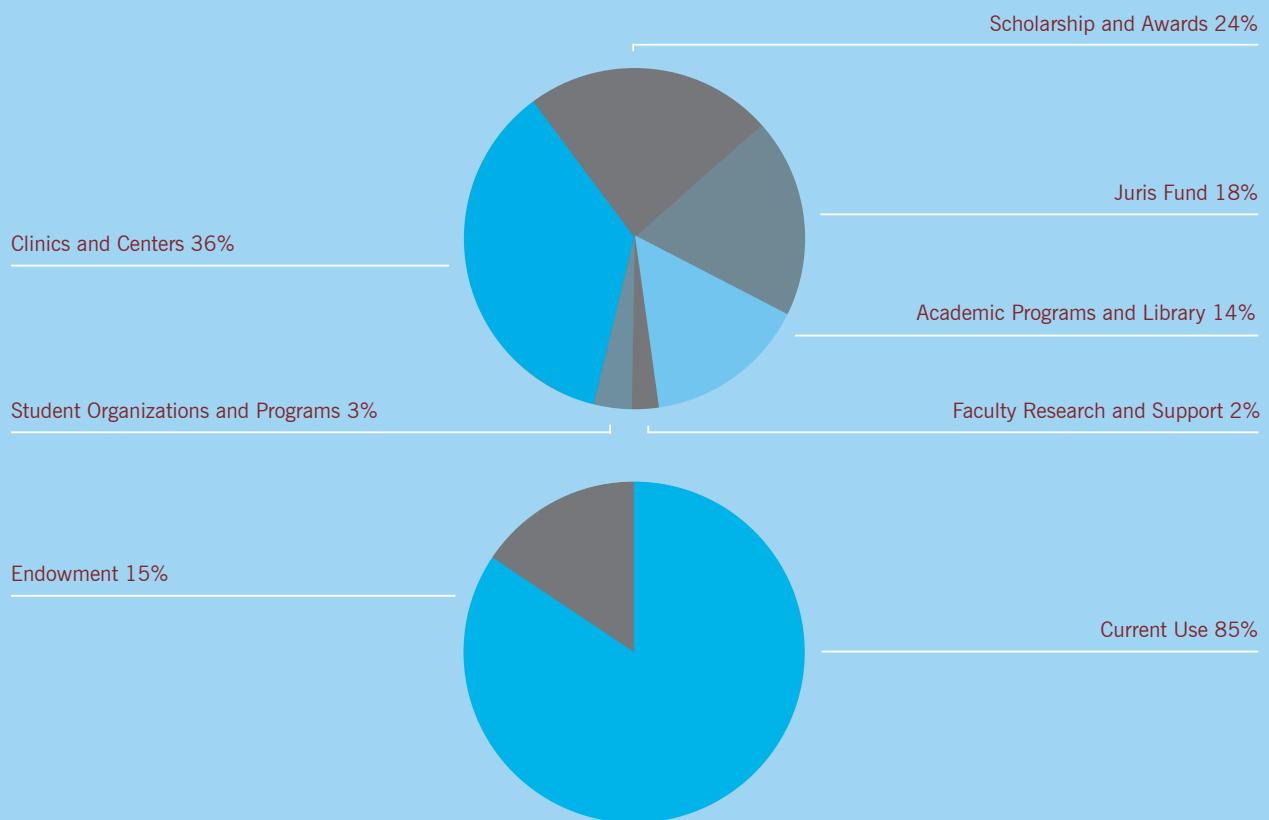

Sincerely,

Michael Waterstone

Fritz B. Burns Dean, Loyola Law School
Senior Vice President, Loyola Marymount University

ADVANCEMENT REPORT

Dear Alumni and Friends,

I am pleased to report that the investment in Loyola Law School by alumni and friends totaled over $6.1 million in gifts and pledges this past fiscal year (FY18). Gifts from nearly 3,000 alumni, parents and family, faculty, staff and friends directly supported Loyola's students and programs.

Alumni and friends demonstrated faith in Dean Michael Waterstone's vision for Loyola by designating their gifts to Loyola's Juris Fund, which gives the Dean the ability to invest in programs that bolster the student experience through clinical offerings and experiential learning, concentrations, and scholarships. Donors gave 26% more than the previous year to the Juris Fund, which reflects the fifth consecutive year of Juris Fund growth. Juris Society membership, donors who give $2,500 or more to the Juris Fund annually, surpassed the 100 member mark, further illustrating the growing support for Dean Waterstone's vision for Loyola.

Alumni and friends also gave to the Loyola Social Justice Clinic, which includes The Project for the Innocent, The Center for Juvenile Law and Policy's three clinics, The Immigrant Justice Clinic, Center for Conflict Resolution and The International Human Rights Clinic. Members of the community recognize the power of Loyola's clinical model and made a direct investment in the way we train attorneys to help others.

Our Center for Juvenile Law and Policy received a $1,000,000 grant from the Everychild Foundation and Mayor Eric Garcetti partnered with Loyola to create the Collateral Consequences of Conviction Justice Project. Similarly, over 300 alumni and friends supported Loyola's Project for the Innocent and their Campaign for Justice, which raised over a quarter of a million dollars to help the wrongfully convicted find justice. Gifts of all sizes make a difference in the lives of our students and the clients they serve.

We are deeply grateful for every gift and to each of our donors for their loyal support of Loyola Law School.

With gratitude,

JURIS SOCIETY

Alumni and friends who contribute $2,500 or more annually to the Juris Fund—the dean’s discretionary fund—are recognized as members of the Juris Society.

Current students, graduates of the past decade, and current and former members of the bench can become Juris Society members with a gift of $1,000 or more.

These leadership donors play an invaluable role in providing support to the Law School’s most urgent needs with their unrestricted gifts. Members of the Juris Society are invited to unique events throughout the year and to a special reception with the Dean.

BUCHALTER PUBLIC SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

“This scholarship has allowed me to extend my learning outside of the classroom to advocate on behalf of tenants in East Los Angeles and Boyle Heights; migrants and their families facing deportation; victims of police brutality; and individuals wrongfully convicted.”

I am truly honored to have been selected as the recipient of the Buchalter Public Service Scholarship this year. Because of your generosity, I can dedicate my time at Loyola to serving marginalized communities and share my passion for public interest work with the Loyola community. This scholarship has allowed me to extend my learning outside of the classroom to advocate on behalf of tenants in East Los Angeles and Boyle Heights; migrants and their families facing deportation; victims of police brutality; and individuals wrongfully convicted. As a Co-Vice Chair of the Public Interest Law Foundation and Vice President of the Asian-Pacific American Law Student Association, I connect my peers to public interest organizations for pro bono work and fundraise for summer public interest stipends for students. Your thoughtful and generous gift not only supports me but also the greater Loyola community and the clients we serve.

Thank you so much for your generosity and continued support of public interest students at Loyola. I am sincerely grateful.

Sincerely,

BIO | Alda graduated from Pitzer College, where she studied International and Intercultural Studies. At Pitzer, she worked with formerly incarcerated women advocating for their cultural and political rights. After graduating, she worked as a community organizer throughout Los Angeles County.

At Loyola, Alda advocates — domestically and internationally — for housing rights, civil rights, immigrant rights, and human rights. With Loyola’s International Human Rights Clinic, she submitted reports to the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

Scholarships ensure that students who may not otherwise be able to attend Loyola benefit from Loyola's nationally recognized legal education.

Donors can choose to give to existing scholarship funds or can create a named scholarship. Establishing a named scholarship increases Loyola's financial security while helping the Law School address a great student need.

Gifts to endowed scholarships build power as they are pooled with all other University endowment assets—currently valued over $450 million. The principle is never spent; rather, it remains invested to build strength with market growth. Interest earned on the investment funds the scholarship and the distribution of earnings is generally 5% annually.

LAW REVIEW SCHOLARSHIP

“I take great pride in being a member of the Loyola community, and your generosity allows me to contribute to the community to the full extent of my ability.”

Thank you for your generous support of the Law Review Scholarship. I take great pride in being a member of the Loyola community, and your generosity allows me to contribute to the community to the full extent of my ability. This year, I am the Editor-in-Chief of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review — a position that comes with the great honor and responsibility of ensuring that our flagship journal reflects well upon the Law School. I am also a member of the Ninth Circuit Appellate Advocacy Clinic, through which I have the opportunity to represent an indigent client on appeal. This scholarship allows me to spend my time engaged in such extracurricular activities, and to utilize the skills I have learned at Loyola to give back.

With deep gratitude,

BIO | Sam Donohue grew up in Portland, Oregon and attended Seattle University. In his senior year, he was named swim team captain. He graduated summa cum laude, with the highest G.P.A. in both of his majors—political science and Spanish.

Sam is a third-year law student at Loyola Law School and the editor-in-chief of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review.

He served as an extern to the Honorable Christina A. Snyder of the United States District Court for the Central District of California, and then to the Honorable Harry Pregerson of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Upon graduation, Sam will be returning to O’Melveny & Myers LLP, where he worked as a summer associate during his 2L summer. He aspires to work as a judicial clerk to a federal judge.

LOYOLA SCHOLARSHIP

“I intend to work as hard as I can, to actively contribute towards improving my community, and to never stop striving to learn and improve.”

Thank you. Because of your support, I have been able to pursue my dream of becoming an attorney and advocate. I cannot express how grateful I am to have received the Loyola Scholarship, and I know that I have a responsibility to not take this opportunity lightly. I intend to work as hard as I can, to actively contribute towards improving my community, and to never stop striving to learn and improve.

I am currently on the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review, the Scott Moot Court Honors Board, the National Moot Court Competition Team, and the South Asian Law Students Association. It has been an honor to have been awarded the Loyola Scholarship to further my pursuits in school. I look forward to giving back in the future!

Thank you, again.

BIO | Mariam Sarwar attended Kalamazoo College in Kalamazoo, Michigan, where she double-majored in anthropology and psychology, and tailored her studies to focus on international relations and development. While in school, she worked at the Kalamazoo College Women's Resource Center; completed an externship with AmeriCorps Volunteers in Service to America; and worked at Interact Kalamazoo, a mental health advocacy nonprofit. At Loyola Law School, Mariam serves as a research assistant for Professor Lauren Willis, vice president of the South Asian Law Students Association, a senior production editor on the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review, a member of the Scott Moot Court Honors Board, and an oralist on the National Moot Court Competition Team. She hopes to use her law degree to create positive change and continue advocating for those in need.

ENDOWED CHAIRS

Appointments to endowed chairs are one of the highest academic honors that a law school can bestow upon members of its faculty.

Those whose generosity leads to the creation of an endowed chair become partners in this endeavor, not just with the current holder of the chair, but also with all future chair holders. The naming of a chair after a distinguished person forever connects that person's name with the work supported by that chair.

“I consider myself lucky to work with students who are committed to using their skills to provide access to justice to others. It is how our social justice mission is lived out through our faculty, students, and staff in some way, every day that makes Loyola such a special place.”

“Journalism ensures that we can talk to each other about issues of common interest. I know there are debates about journalistic neutrality right now. But this society is in desperate need of a Fourth Estate; we need journalism that is critical, provocative and leads us to the possibility of a common good.”

MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN

Dear Loyola Alumni and Friends,

It is my greatest honor to thank you and the thousands of fellow Loyola community members that support the Law School with your philanthropy. The support of the entire law school family enables us to innovate in our programs, support our students, serve our community, and build on Loyola Law School's tradition of excellence.

This past spring, LA's Mayor, Eric Garcetti, joined us on campus for the grand opening of Loyola's Social Justice Law Clinic. Mayor Garcetti understands the power of the Loyola model — not only do we help fill the access to justice gap facing some of the most vulnerable members of our community, we do so while training the next generation of advocates and leaders in the legal profession. In 2017, our clinical students helped more than 2,500 clients through their coursework at Loyola Law School.

We increased the amount of scholarship support by $1,400,000 during the 2017-2018 academic year. Furthermore, we have increased the career counselor to student ratio, which has helped our recent graduates navigate the job market. The percentage of Loyola graduates in full time, long-term positions that require bar admissions or where a J.D. is advantageous reached 80% with the class of 2017, the best employment rate in recent memory. Loyola tied sixth in the nation and ranked first on the west coast with the highest number of 2017 graduates employed in business/industry.

We had a great year. These developments would not have been possible without alumni and friends who made a gift to the Law School during the 2018 fiscal year.

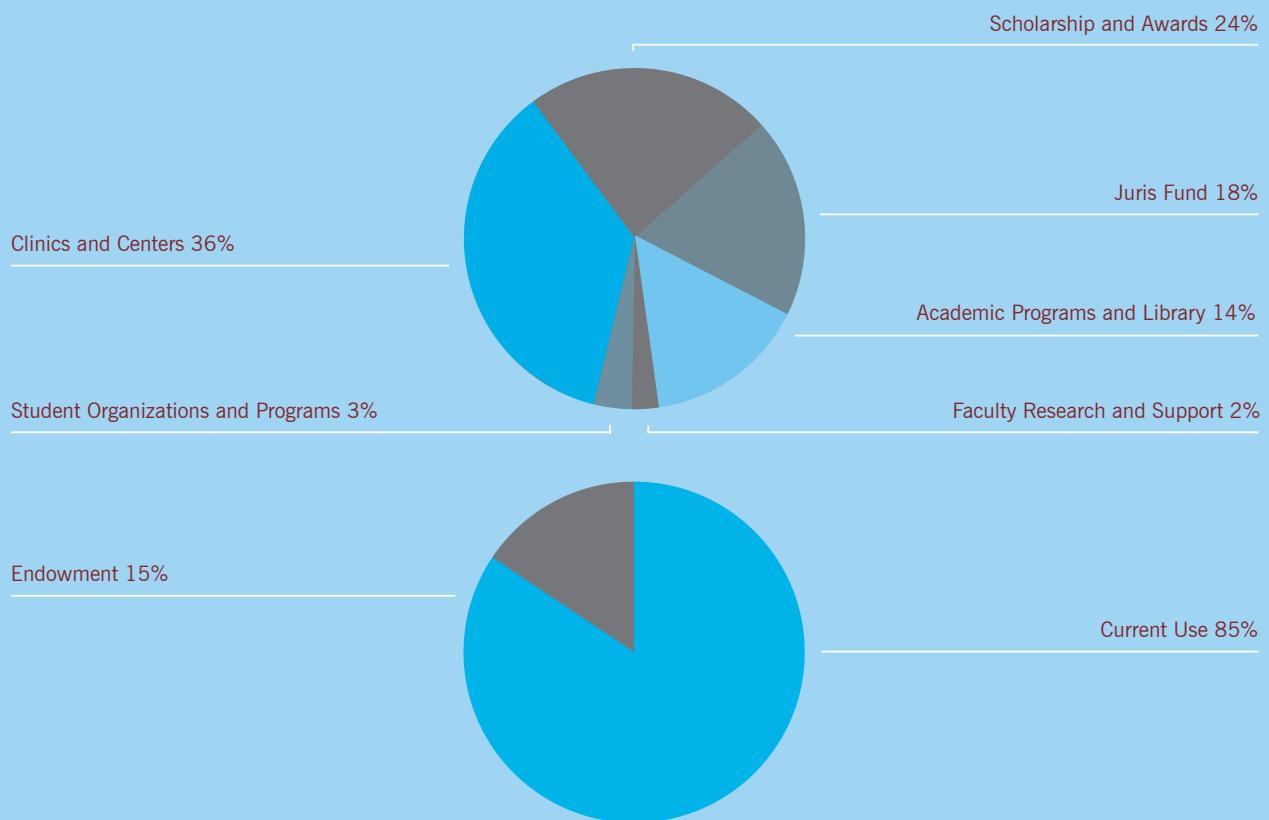

Sincerely,

Michael Waterstone

Fritz B. Burns Dean, Loyola Law School
Senior Vice President, Loyola Marymount University

ADVANCEMENT REPORT

Dear Alumni and Friends,

I am pleased to report that the investment in Loyola Law School by alumni and friends totaled over $6.1 million in gifts and pledges this past fiscal year (FY18). Gifts from nearly 3,000 alumni, parents and family, faculty, staff and friends directly supported Loyola's students and programs.

Alumni and friends demonstrated faith in Dean Michael Waterstone's vision for Loyola by designating their gifts to Loyola's Juris Fund, which gives the Dean the ability to invest in programs that bolster the student experience through clinical offerings and experiential learning, concentrations, and scholarships. Donors gave 26% more than the previous year to the Juris Fund, which reflects the fifth consecutive year of Juris Fund growth. Juris Society membership, donors who give $2,500 or more to the Juris Fund annually, surpassed the 100 member mark, further illustrating the growing support for Dean Waterstone's vision for Loyola.

Alumni and friends also gave to the Loyola Social Justice Clinic, which includes The Project for the Innocent, The Center for Juvenile Law and Policy's three clinics, The Immigrant Justice Clinic, Center for Conflict Resolution and The International Human Rights Clinic. Members of the community recognize the power of Loyola's clinical model and made a direct investment in the way we train attorneys to help others.

Our Center for Juvenile Law and Policy received a $1,000,000 grant from the Everychild Foundation and Mayor Eric Garcetti partnered with Loyola to create the Collateral Consequences of Conviction Justice Project. Similarly, over 300 alumni and friends supported Loyola's Project for the Innocent and their Campaign for Justice, which raised over a quarter of a million dollars to help the wrongfully convicted find justice. Gifts of all sizes make a difference in the lives of our students and the clients they serve.

We are deeply grateful for every gift and to each of our donors for their loyal support of Loyola Law School.

With gratitude,

JURIS SOCIETY

Alumni and friends who contribute $2,500 or more annually to the Juris Fund—the dean’s discretionary fund—are recognized as members of the Juris Society.

Current students, graduates of the past decade, and current and former members of the bench can become Juris Society members with a gift of $1,000 or more.

These leadership donors play an invaluable role in providing support to the Law School’s most urgent needs with their unrestricted gifts. Members of the Juris Society are invited to unique events throughout the year and to a special reception with the Dean.

BUCHALTER PUBLIC SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

“This scholarship has allowed me to extend my learning outside of the classroom to advocate on behalf of tenants in East Los Angeles and Boyle Heights; migrants and their families facing deportation; victims of police brutality; and individuals wrongfully convicted.”

I am truly honored to have been selected as the recipient of the Buchalter Public Service Scholarship this year. Because of your generosity, I can dedicate my time at Loyola to serving marginalized communities and share my passion for public interest work with the Loyola community. This scholarship has allowed me to extend my learning outside of the classroom to advocate on behalf of tenants in East Los Angeles and Boyle Heights; migrants and their families facing deportation; victims of police brutality; and individuals wrongfully convicted. As a Co-Vice Chair of the Public Interest Law Foundation and Vice President of the Asian-Pacific American Law Student Association, I connect my peers to public interest organizations for pro bono work and fundraise for summer public interest stipends for students. Your thoughtful and generous gift not only supports me but also the greater Loyola community and the clients we serve.

Thank you so much for your generosity and continued support of public interest students at Loyola. I am sincerely grateful.

Sincerely,

BIO | Alda graduated from Pitzer College, where she studied International and Intercultural Studies. At Pitzer, she worked with formerly incarcerated women advocating for their cultural and political rights. After graduating, she worked as a community organizer throughout Los Angeles County.

At Loyola, Alda advocates — domestically and internationally — for housing rights, civil rights, immigrant rights, and human rights. With Loyola’s International Human Rights Clinic, she submitted reports to the United Nations Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women and the United Nations Committee on Economic, Social, and Cultural Rights.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

Scholarships ensure that students who may not otherwise be able to attend Loyola benefit from Loyola's nationally recognized legal education.

Donors can choose to give to existing scholarship funds or can create a named scholarship. Establishing a named scholarship increases Loyola's financial security while helping the Law School address a great student need.

Gifts to endowed scholarships build power as they are pooled with all other University endowment assets—currently valued over $450 million. The principle is never spent; rather, it remains invested to build strength with market growth. Interest earned on the investment funds the scholarship and the distribution of earnings is generally 5% annually.

LAW REVIEW SCHOLARSHIP

“I take great pride in being a member of the Loyola community, and your generosity allows me to contribute to the community to the full extent of my ability.”

Thank you for your generous support of the Law Review Scholarship. I take great pride in being a member of the Loyola community, and your generosity allows me to contribute to the community to the full extent of my ability. This year, I am the Editor-in-Chief of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review — a position that comes with the great honor and responsibility of ensuring that our flagship journal reflects well upon the Law School. I am also a member of the Ninth Circuit Appellate Advocacy Clinic, through which I have the opportunity to represent an indigent client on appeal. This scholarship allows me to spend my time engaged in such extracurricular activities, and to utilize the skills I have learned at Loyola to give back.

With deep gratitude,

BIO | Sam Donohue grew up in Portland, Oregon and attended Seattle University. In his senior year, he was named swim team captain. He graduated summa cum laude, with the highest G.P.A. in both of his majors—political science and Spanish.

Sam is a third-year law student at Loyola Law School and the editor-in-chief of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review.

He served as an extern to the Honorable Christina A. Snyder of the United States District Court for the Central District of California, and then to the Honorable Harry Pregerson of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Upon graduation, Sam will be returning to O’Melveny & Myers LLP, where he worked as a summer associate during his 2L summer. He aspires to work as a judicial clerk to a federal judge.

LOYOLA SCHOLARSHIP

“I intend to work as hard as I can, to actively contribute towards improving my community, and to never stop striving to learn and improve.”

Thank you. Because of your support, I have been able to pursue my dream of becoming an attorney and advocate. I cannot express how grateful I am to have received the Loyola Scholarship, and I know that I have a responsibility to not take this opportunity lightly. I intend to work as hard as I can, to actively contribute towards improving my community, and to never stop striving to learn and improve.

I am currently on the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review, the Scott Moot Court Honors Board, the National Moot Court Competition Team, and the South Asian Law Students Association. It has been an honor to have been awarded the Loyola Scholarship to further my pursuits in school. I look forward to giving back in the future!

Thank you, again.

BIO | Mariam Sarwar attended Kalamazoo College in Kalamazoo, Michigan, where she double-majored in anthropology and psychology, and tailored her studies to focus on international relations and development. While in school, she worked at the Kalamazoo College Women's Resource Center; completed an externship with AmeriCorps Volunteers in Service to America; and worked at Interact Kalamazoo, a mental health advocacy nonprofit. At Loyola Law School, Mariam serves as a research assistant for Professor Lauren Willis, vice president of the South Asian Law Students Association, a senior production editor on the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review, a member of the Scott Moot Court Honors Board, and an oralist on the National Moot Court Competition Team. She hopes to use her law degree to create positive change and continue advocating for those in need.

ENDOWED CHAIRS

Appointments to endowed chairs are one of the highest academic honors that a law school can bestow upon members of its faculty.

Those whose generosity leads to the creation of an endowed chair become partners in this endeavor, not just with the current holder of the chair, but also with all future chair holders. The naming of a chair after a distinguished person forever connects that person's name with the work supported by that chair.

“I consider myself lucky to work with students who are committed to using their skills to provide access to justice to others. It is how our social justice mission is lived out through our faculty, students, and staff in some way, every day that makes Loyola such a special place.”

“Journalism ensures that we can talk to each other about issues of common interest. I know there are debates about journalistic neutrality right now. But this society is in desperate need of a Fourth Estate; we need journalism that is critical, provocative and leads us to the possibility of a common good.”

MATCHING GIFTS

Many companies and employers match charitable contributions of an employee or spouse allowing the donor to increase their gift. Contact your Human Resources department to inquire about matching gift policies or obtain a matching gift form. The matching gift form should be completed by your employer and submitted with your gift.

ESTATE/PLANNED GIFTS

Planned gifts include bequests, real estate gifts, life insurance, trusts, tangible personal property, closely held stock, remainder in a home, etc. Planned gifts are an extraordinary way for alumni and friends to support Loyola Law School. Each gift qualifies for a charitable tax deduction but also has special rules for placing value on the gifts. If you would like assistance in making arrangements for planned gifts, please contact Thanh Hoang at the address below.
